E. T. V. & Co., 2000 Main st., Lake Champlain Railway Company reports for the year ended June 30.

The local movements of money this week as follows:

The known movements of money in the four business days of the week ending last night indicate a gain in cash.

Another day of the week shows a loss of $1,000.

On Friday, Aug. 24, 1901, the stock exchange days in the week, ending at the close of business yesterday, were the heaviest of the season, aggregating $8,300,250, against shipments of $5,737,831 last week and $5,866,820 the previous week.

The rate of exchange was higher, owing to stronger calls.

The cost of coffee was increased.

Stocks are large, and the market is weak.

Interest rates are high.
